

Submit your own project !

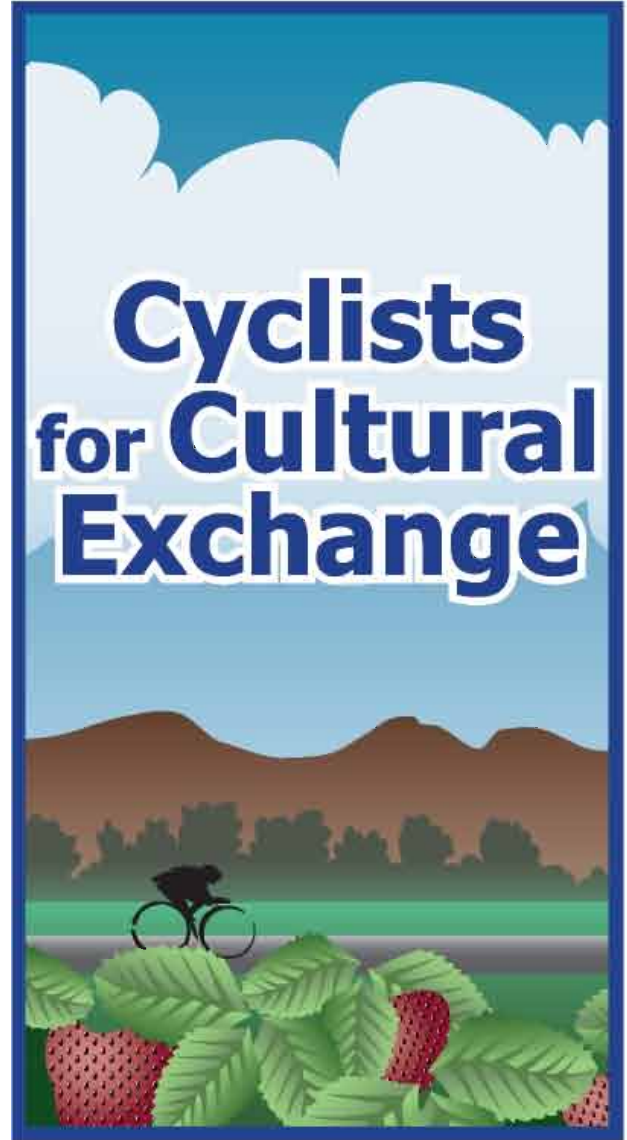

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange provides grants supporting projects and programs, locally and abroad, which promote community development and economic improvement through the use of bicycles as primary or alternative transportation, and for recreation.

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization located in Santa Cruz County, California, USA

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange
216-G Mt. Hermon Rd., Box 8010
Scotts Valley, CA 95066

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange is an organization which promotes peace, understanding and friendship among peoples from around the world through cycling.

www.strawberryfields.org

Join our Exchange Programs

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange organizes Exchange Programs for the purpose of experiencing the people, cultures, and history of our neighbors in this world .

Bicyclists from many countries come together to explore differences and find common ground with the people of this planet.

Sign up for Strawberry Fields Forever

An annual one-day bike ride provides the funds that are distributed in support of our mission.

photo by Brian Vernor

Together we share our visions, hopes, and dreams for world peace.

Coming Together

www.strawberryfields.org

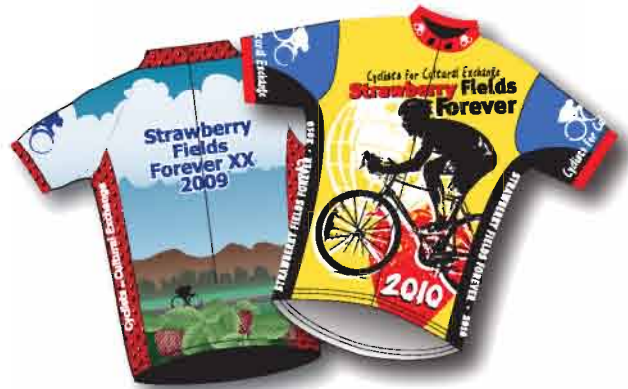

Join our Exchange Programs

Cyclists for Cultural Exchange organizes Exchange Programs for the purpose of experiencing the people, cultures, and history of our neighbors in this world .

Bicyclists from many countries come together to explore differences and find common ground with the people of this planet.

Sign up for Strawberry Fields Forever

An annual one-day bike ride provides the funds that are distributed in support of our mission.

Together we share our visions, hopes, and dreams for world peace.

Coming Together

www.strawberryfields.org